Why us?

We have implementation and operator experience in the implementation of energy and mobility systems.

We transform results from numerous projects at the interface between energy and mobility into new business areas for our customers and have direct access to the Mobility2Grid research campus.

We master the interfaces to energy systems, charging infrastructure, IT booking platforms and operate the Micro Smart Grid, which is unique in Germany, at our company headquarters. Our headquarters are located on the EUREF campus in Berlin.

We seek challenges and continuously integrate new innovations.
